

Dudley
House

Privacy Policy

Dudley House Privacy Policy

We only collect the information you provide us with on the Booking Form, Feedback Form and Red Funnel Ferry Booking Form.

We use third party booking sites and receiving booking information from them.

The information collected on this website is stored on google forms in the google cloud.

We may use the information provided to manage current and future bookings, request and respond to reviews and to advise you of future offers.

We do not and will not share your information with any other party.

We will delete your information after your booking has been completed if requested by you in writing.